Appellant,

v.

V.A.,

Respondent.

(Super. Ct. No. 17STPT00486)

(Mark H. Epstein, Judge)

ORDER

We have read and considered the petition for writ of supersedeas filed on January 29, 2018, the opposition filed on January 31, 2018, the supplemental opposition filed on February 9, 2018, the reply filed on February 16, 2018, the sur-reply filed on March 2, 2018, and the response to the sur-reply filed on March 12, 2018.

The petition for writ of supersedeas is granted. The superior court's order of January 12, 2018, granting respondent's motion to quash is stayed pending resolution of this appeal.

The superior court's temporary orders awarding joint physical and legal custody and prohibiting the removal of baby L. from this jurisdiction shall remain in effect pending resolution of the appeal in this matter, but the superior court is vested with jurisdiction to grant any subsequent temporary custody, visitation, or support orders as provided by law, including travel orders for the removal of baby L. from California to other states within the U.S., and out of the U.S. for international travel. In any order permitting either party to remove baby L. from the state of California for domestic travel, or out of the U.S. for international travel, the superior court shall consider the preventative measures under Family Code section 3048.

The superior court is ordered to expedite the preparation of the clerk's transcript and the reporter's transcript for this case. Alternatively, the parties may choose to file a joint appendix, which the court encourages them to do if that will be more expeditious than awaiting a clerk's transcript. If the parties elect to file a joint appendix, they must notify the superior court and this court within five days of this order. This case is also set for calendar preference, including an expedited briefing schedule and preference for setting the matter for oral argument. Requests for extensions of time for filing of briefs will be granted only upon a clear showing of exceptional good cause.

These orders shall remain in effect until final resolution of the appeal, or further order of this court.
