CHRISTINA E. DJORDJEVICH

PARTNER

Christina concentrates her practice exclusively on family law. She has substantial experience litigating complex financial issues and child custody disputes, as well as drafting and negotiating premarital and postnuptial agreements, marital settlement agreements and cohabitation agreements.

Christina received her law degree from Columbia Law School, where she was a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar and editor of the Columbia Journal of Law and the Arts. She received her B.A. from Barnard College, Columbia University, magna cum laude, with Departmental Honors. Before joining Walzer Melcher, Christina was an associate at a preeminent family law firm in New York City. Prior to focusing on family law, Christina practiced commercial litigation at Mitchell Silberberg & Knupp LLP and Latham & Watkins LLP.

Christina has been selected as a Super Lawyers “Rising Star” in New York from 2013 through 2017, and in California since 2020. She is licensed to practice law in California and New York.

Christina currently serves as a Vice-Chair of the International Family Law Committee of the American Bar Association Section of International Law. She regularly lectures on family law topics.
