ASHLEY K. QUAN

ASSOCIATE

Ashley K. Quan joined Walzer Melcher & Yoda shortly after being admitted to the State Bar of California. Ashley focuses her practice on all aspects of family law, including dissolution of marriage, domestic violence matters, custody and visitation disputes, jurisdictional issues, premarital agreements, and postnuptial agreements.

Ashley currently serves as the secretary of the Family Law Section of the Beverly Hills Bar Association and is an active member of the Young Lawyers Group of the Japanese American Bar Association.

Prior to her admission to the bar, Ashley gained extensive knowledge and experience in family law. While she was an undergraduate at Loyola Marymount University, she volunteered at the Legal Aid Foundation of Los Angeles assisting victims of domestic violence in obtaining restraining orders. After college, Ashley attended the University of California, Hastings College of the Law. During law school, Ashley volunteered in the Family Law Section of the Bar Association of San Francisco and competed at the National Family Law Moot Court Competition in Albany, New York.

Ashley also served as a teaching assistant in Legal Research and Writing and received the CALI award in her Advanced Legal Writing course. During her last year of law school, Ashley clerked for Walzer Melcher & Yoda.
