AARON C. REICHMAN

ASSOCIATE

Aaron C. Reichman joined Walzer Melcher & Yoda LLP shortly after being admitted to the State Bar of California. Aaron focuses his practice on all aspects of family law, including dissolution of marriage, domestic violence matters, custody and visitation disputes, jurisdictional issues, international child custody, premarital agreements, and postnuptial agreements.

Aaron attended LMU Loyola Law School. During law school, Aaron worked as a research assistant for Associate Dean Lauren Willis and interned for the Loyola Project for the Innocent helping overturn wrongful criminal convictions. Before admission to the bar, Aaron gained experience in probate court litigation and estate planning as a law clerk.
